Subject: Platinum counterfeit of a Spanish gold coin

"Popular Science Monthly"
[381 Fourth Ave, NYC]

1931

Jan. 26,1931

Popular Science Monthly

381 Dourth Avenue

New York City

Attention Miss Stezer

Dear Sirs:

Herewith is enclosed a print of a platinum counterfeit of a Spanish gold coin, as per your request of last week. The scratch on the face is due to some one having scraped through the gold plate to see if it was gold or not. If you can still use this, you can remit one dollar, if not, there is no charge.

Very truly yours

Curator.

POPULAR SCIENCE MONTHLY
FOUNDED 1872
381 FOURTH AVENUE, NEW YORK

Office of the Editor

February 14, 1931

The American Numismatic Society
Broadway Bet. 155 & 156th Sts.
New York City

Attention - Howland Wood, Curator

Gentlemen:

We are using the print of the platinum counterfeit of a Spanish gold coin which you were so good as to send us, and are instructing our accounting department to send you one dollar.

Sincerely

Raymond J. Brown

Raymond J. Brown
Editor